COOKIES INFORMATION

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

Opting out of Cookies

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

HOW WE SECURE YOUR INFORMATION

We take security measures to protect your information including:

- Implementing access controls to our information technology, encryption of emails, firewalls, ID verification and logical segmentation and/ or physical separation of our systems and information;
- Anonymization or pseudonymisation of sensitive data.
- We are also obtaining Cyber Essentials which is a Government-backed, industry-supported scheme that help organisations protect themselves against common online threats.

YOUR RIGHTS

Right to Access and Rectification

You have the right to access the personal information that we hold about you in many circumstances. This is called a 'Subject Access Request'. If we agree that we are obliged to provide personal information to you (or someone else on your behalf), we will provide it to you or them free of charge.

Before providing personal information to you or another person on your behalf, we may ask for proof of identity and sufficient information about your interactions with us that we can locate your personal information.

If any of the personal information we hold about you is inaccurate or out of date, you may ask us to correct it.

Right to erasure

You have the right to request us to delete or remove your personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing, although, this can only be done under specific circumstances.

Right to restrict the processing

You have the right to restrict the data processing, however, this can only be done under specific circumstances.
